Julie Kitchens Joins Terra Firma Global Partners in Sebastopol

Posted on March 4, 2017 by publisher8 in People on the Move

Sebastopol, CA, March 3, 2017 – Julie Kitchens has joined Terra Firma Global Partners and will serve real estate clients throughout Sonoma County from the firm's Sebastopol office, announced co-founders, Heidi Rickerd-Rizzo and Bill Facendini.

Kitchens

Kitchens started in the real estate industry in 2004 with a firm based in Emeryville, originally generating mortgages for home buyers before transitioning to sales, serving single-family home buyers and sellers in Oakland and the I-80/I880 corridors. Prior to joining Terra Firma, Julie worked with a Santa Rosa-based residential real estate services company.

Her business background also includes work as a medical assistant in a cardiology and endocrinology office. She earned a Medical Assistant Certificate from Empire College, and also worked in the restaurant industry managing the front of the house.

Kitchens was raised in West Sonoma County and serves the residential real estate market throughout the county, but particularly in the areas she is passionate about and has the most knowledge – the Russian River, Cazadero, Sebastopol, Graton, Occidental and Santa Rosa.

Terra Firma Global Partners Sebastopol office is located at 130 Petaluma Avenue, Suite 1, in Sebastopol.

About Terra Firma Global Partners – A Real Estate Company for Life

Terra Firma Global Partners (www.terrafirmaglobalpartners.com) is a locally owned and operated boutique real estate company with nine offices in Napa, Sonoma and Marin Counties. Founded in 2010 by real estate veterans Bill Facendini and Heidi Rickerd-Rizzo, the company's vision is to provide clients with a personal experience that keeps them a client for life, giving them the trust and confidence to refer friends and family to Terra Firma for all of their real estate needs. The firm has been voted one of the best places to work in the North Bay for two consecutive years and company co-founder Heidi Rickerd-Rizzo was recognized in 2016 as one of the North Bay's top women business leaders by the North Bay Business Journal (NBBJ). In addition, Terra Firma was named as one of the North Bay's most Philanthropic Companies by the NBBJ in 2016.
